Greetings of this Holy Season!

The NCPD staff would like to wish you a holy Advent, a very merry Christmas Season and a blessed New Year. It has been a tremendous gift for us to witness and be a part of so many efforts with and on behalf of Catholics with disabilities across the country this year.

It is impossible to adequately express what a pleasure it has been to meet and work with so many of you. We are honored to be able to offer supports to you and we commend you for all that you do in your ministries. To those who have served so selflessly on an NCPD council, board, committee, film crew, webinar team, or acted as a host for a meeting or gathering, we are deeply appreciative.

Please know that the prayers of Jan, Nancy, Peg, Bob, Yan, Barb and our volunteers will be with you throughout these holy seasons and 2010. Blessings to you in all.

Invitation to the Catholic Social Ministry Gathering and the Diversity Outreach Initiative

NCPD is pleased to be a co-sponsor of the annual Catholic Social Ministry Gathering (CSMG), held each February in Washington, DC. (Visit www.CatholicSocialMinistryGathering.org for details on the 2010 meeting.) Our participation affords an opportunity to provide a disability perspective to the social justice issues being addressed at the gathering.

We invite you to help NCPD staff represent disability concerns at this gathering in one of two ways:

- Attend the 2010 CSMG on February 7-10
AND/OR
 - Encourage a person with a disability from your diocese to participate as part of the Diversity Outreach Initiative described on our website. Click here to read more.

Mid-Atlantic Regional Meeting

On Thursday, November 19, nineteen pastoral ministers involved in ministry with people with disabilities representing eleven dioceses and three national offices (NCPD, the National Apostolate for Inclusion Ministry and the National Catholic Office for the Deaf) met at the John Paul II Retreat Center in Vineland, NJ for the annual NCPD Mid-Atlantic Regional meeting.

It was a fruitful time of discussing a wide range of topics, including support for wounded warriors, parish advocate programs, language, and reports from the national offices. Several attendees stayed on for a half-day retreat, and liturgy celebrated by Fr. Brian O'Neill. Special thanks to Sr. Bonnie McMenamini of Camden and Anne Masters of Newark for organizing the meeting and retreat. If you are interested in sponsoring a regional meeting in your area in 2010, please contact Janice Benton at jbenton@ncpd.org.

Voices of Faith Series Launched

Tell us a disability story about yourself or someone you know ... stories of how faith and involvement in the Church has been a part of realizing hopes and dreams. Or share stories of how someone made a positive difference in your faith life or in the faith life of someone you love who lives with disability.

People of Faith

Take a moment to think of one Catholic with a disability, and to ask, what would their life be without their faith?

Access to Faith... is NCPD's mission, carried out through the trainings and resources we provide to parish and diocesan staff across the country.

NCPD relies on freewill support from affiliate diocesan members....and donors like you. Your help is needed now more than ever.

Bless NCPD this Advent, as we try to bring the light of Christ into the lives of Catholics with disabilities, their families, parishes and dioceses.

Wishing blessings to Sr. Michelle

Sr. Michelle Grgurich, SCN, who worked with Grace Harding in the Diocese of Pittsburgh Department for Persons with Disabilities for many years, and took over as Director upon Grace's retirement, has recently left the Diocese in order to work with her religious community. Sr. Michelle will serve as the Director of Congregational Ministries, and will live in Kentucky. While we will miss her skills, creativity, and commitment to addressing the needs of Catholics with disabilities and their families, we wish Sr. Michelle abundant blessings in her new ministry.

Year for Priests: Fr. Wayne Ball's Story

This month features Fr. Wayne Ball, a long-time friend of NCPD, who was ordained for the Diocese of Richmond twenty years ago after studying at Theological College, where NCPD is housed. During his seminary studies, Fr. Ball became a faithful volunteer to NCPD, and spoke at several NCPD-sponsored gatherings and conferences. Below is part of his story.

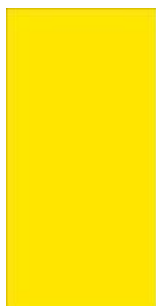

"I was born in Danville Virginia in 1960, to a girl who had just finished the 10th grade, as the "non-identifying information" available to me reports. As an adopted child, I spent a good portion of my life asking one question: "If I had been normal, would my mother have kept me?" It was only later in life I came to understand that her giving me up for adoption was both a great act of love, and divine providence.

I passed through several foster homes, until I arrived at the home of John and Marcia Ball. I was born with Cerebral Palsy (CP), a condition that was poorly understood in the early 1960s. The original plan seems to have been that I would spend some time in foster care and then, as was still common in those days, be institutionalized. All of the experts consulted had concluded two things:... (Click here to read more)
