CONSIDER THIS SUPREME COURT QUOTE
FROM 1943 OPINION: WEST VIRGINIA V. BARNETTE

“But freedom to differ is not limited to things that do not matter much. That would be a mere shadow of freedom. The test of its substance is the right to differ as to things that touch the heart of the existing order. If there is any fixed star in our constitutional constellation, it is that no official, high or petty, can prescribe what shall be orthodox in politics, nationalism, religion, or other matters of opinion or force citizens to confess by word or act their faith therein.”

Dear _____

Thank you for your witness and courage in leading the way for this Fortnight for Freedom. You have challenged us to extend ourselves in many ways as citizens and Catholics to protect religious liberty for all in the United States.

We pray that yours and our witness will become a means of preservation for this most important and valued of America's freedoms: religious liberty.

In prayerful support and gratitude,
