

Living in the Spirit

A Catholic Retreat for Wounded Warriors

Retreat Leader Br. Rick Curry, SJ, Ph.D.

Founder, National Theatre Workshop of the Handicapped

March 22, 2009

9AM - 5PM

Washington Theological Union

A day of prayer and reflection for wounded soldiers, honoring their service to our country, their strength of spirit, and their continuing need for relationship with the life-giving Spirit of God. While this retreat is geared primarily for Catholics, all are welcome. Companions and caregivers are also welcome.

Continental breakfast and lunch will be provided. There will be no charge. For more information please contact:

CH (MAJ) Randy Haycock
at (202) 782-8351 or randall.haycock@amedd.army.mil.

MASS WILL BE CELEBRATED AT 4:00 PM IN
THE CHAPEL

Sign language interpreter available upon request with two weeks prior notice.

Sponsored by: Washington Theological Union, The Archdiocese of Washington, The Archdiocese for Military Services, USA, National Catholic Partnership on Disability, and CUSA Apostolate in conjunction with Walter Reed Army Hospital

6896 Laurel Ave. NW
Washington DC 20012
(Wheelchair Accessible)

www.wtu.edu