

Fact Check

Having a disability does not mean a person cannot receive sacraments.

You do not have to speak to receive Eucharist.

You do not have to recite the Gifts of the Spirit to receive Confirmation.

You do not have to speak to seek forgiveness through Reconciliation.

Persons with intellectual disabilities can understand the promises being made in Matrimony.

Learn more ways to make parishes everyone's home at ncpd.org